

Method Name: Login-Details()

Class Name: User

ID: 1

Associated UseCase: Login to the account

Description of Responsibilities: Check the credentials of User to allow him/her into the application to use it.

Arguments Received: Receives the arguments of 2 strings as Username, password of user.

Type of Return value: We would return boolean Statement 'True' or 'False' depending on correctness of credentials including message Invalid Username or Password.

Pre-Condition: Username & password of user must be limited characters and contains particular type of symbols and characters and not be null.

Post-Condition: it should check with the Database that Username and password of particular user are correct or not to login to System to use it.